Highlights

Burning questions

In this edition, we tackle urgent topics: the Right of Nature, Housing as a Social Infrastructure and Space & Racialization. Three thought-provoking statements on why and how architecture must transform. Engage in lively discussions with our keynote speakers in small groups!

Facing Climate Change Head-On

Let's get real about tackling climate change at the municipal level! Weatherpark, the climate experts, will kickstart the discussion. Join us for a workshop where municipal administrations share experiences with real-world examples. We'll dive into the challenges, lessons learned, and practical steps to make our cities climate-ready.

Saturday, 11. November

 Wildgarten Community Centre
Emil-Behring-Weg 9, 1120 Vienna

Guided Tour: Wildgarten

11:00am - 01:30pm

On Saturday, the forum is typically closed to the public. However, architect Astrid Stark extends an invitation to the young planners to accompany her on a guided tour through the project Wildgarten.

Wildgarten stands as the significant realization of the 10th EUROPAN competition, designed by the Spanish architects Arenas Basabes Palacios. This 11ha residential quarter embodies the vision of living with nature in a neighborly yet urban way.
